Proceedings: [IN CHAMBERS] ORDER RE SANCTIONS

On June 18, 2013, the Court issued a brief Minute Order declining to sanction Defendant Orly Taitz ("Taitz") on very narrow grounds. (Dkt. No. 632.) The Court now expands briefly on that Minute Order to say that another court did award sanctions against Taitz, but they were discovery sanctions that were less severe than other sanctions. This Court therefore decided not to sanction Taitz for misrepresentations about sanctions against her, hoping that the parties would better focus on the substantive issues in this litigation. There was no finding by this Court that Taitz never lied.
